This notice describes how dental and medical information about you may be used and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. You must make any request in writing to us directly.

OUR POLICY REGARDING DENTAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION:

We at Daniel J. King DMD, P.C., understand that dental and medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting this information about you. We have created a record of the care and services you receive at our practice. We need this record in order to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by our practice, whether made by office personnel, your dental hygienist or your doctor and his or her assistants.

Those specialists we refer you to may have different policies or notices regarding the use and disclosure of your dental and medical information created in that environment.

At Daniel J. King DMD, P.C., we may use and disclose dental and medical information about you for the following: treatment, payment, office operations, appointment reminders, individuals involved in your care, workman's compensation or otherwise as required by law.

You have rights regarding the information we maintain about you. These rights include: the right to inspect and copy, the right to amend, the right to an accounting of disclosures, the right to request restrictions and the right to request confidential communications.

This practice will comply with reasonable requests in accordance with state and federal regulations.
